

CovertAction Information Bulletin
Covert Action Publications, Inc.
P.O. Box 50272
F Street Station
Washington, DC 20004

October 28, 1978

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE.....

The second issue of the CovertAction Information Bulletin was published today. The first issue, published in late July, was distributed widely, during and after the XI World Festival of Youth and Students in Havana, Cuba.

This issue, the cover of which is reproduced on the reverse, contains an exclusive item: a first-person account by a former CIA employee, James Wilcott, detailing how the CIA attempts to recruit foreign diplomats.

The issue also contains an analysis of the methodology for uncovering CIA officers under diplomatic cover, an interview with a Cuban intelligence officer who infiltrated the CIA for ten years, and continues the Bulletin's exclusive column, Naming Names, which reveals CIA personnel never before named in France, Italy, India, Venezuela, El Salvador and Jordan, as well as transfers of exposed CIA personnel to Switzerland, Philippines and Argentina.

The Bulletin is available in the Washington area at: International Learning Systems, 1715 Connecticut; Universal News, 18th and Columbia Road; Kramer Books, 1347 Connecticut, 1517 Connecticut & 450 Pennsylvania; and Tobacco Etc., Nash Blvd., Rosslyn.

For inquiries, we may be reached at: 265-3904

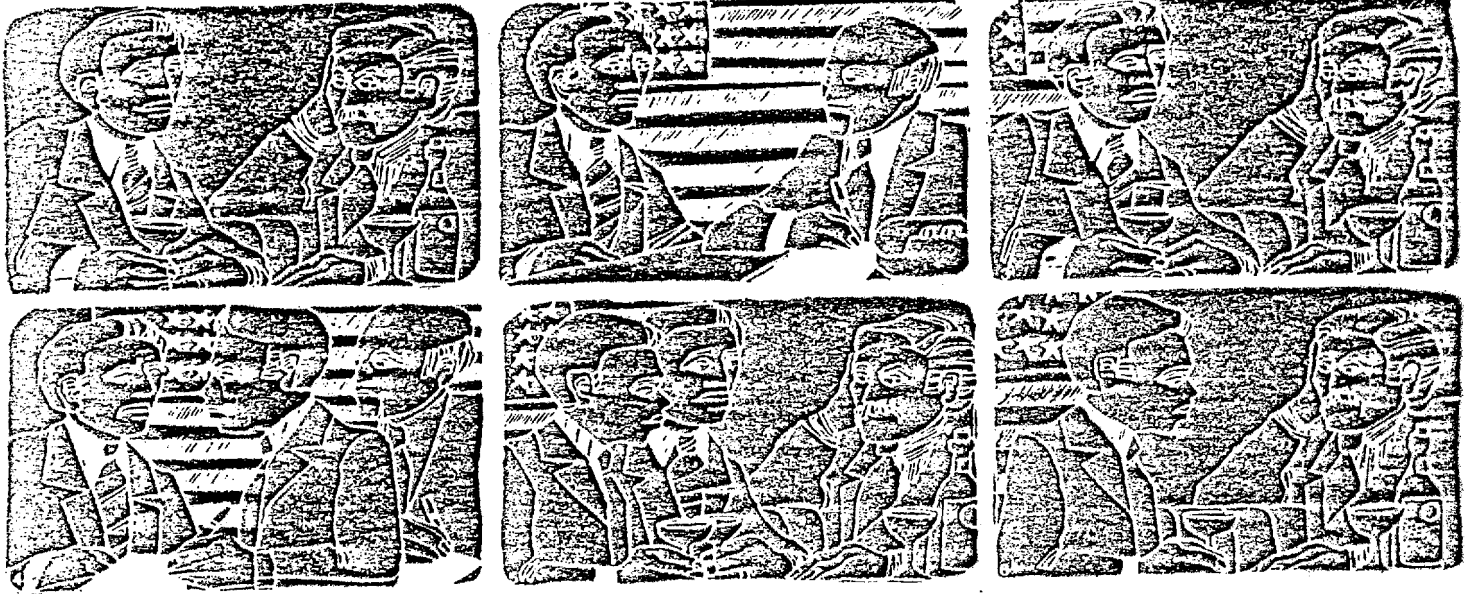

COVERT ACTION

INFORMATION BULLETIN

NUMBER TWO

OCTOBER 1978

BY SUBSCRIPTION*

EXCLUSIVE: RECRUITING FOREIGN DIPLOMATS

CONTENTS

EDITORIAL		3
HOW THE CIA RECRUITS FOREIGN DIPLOMATS		4
RESEARCHING UNDERCOVER CIA OFFICERS		11
TEN YEARS AS A CUBAN DOUBLE AGENT IN THE CIA		16
BOOK REVIEWS	22	NAMING NAMES 26
NEWS NOTES	24	PUBLICATIONS OF INTEREST 28

CovertAction Information Bulletin, Number 2, October 1978, published by Covert Action Publications, Inc., a District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation, P.O. Box 50272, Washington, DC 20004. Telephone (202) 265-3904. All rights reserved; copyright © 1978, by Covert Action Publications, Inc. Permission to reprint will be liberally granted. Typography and original graphics by Art for People, Washington, DC.